HAZEL GREEN, KY.: WEDNESDAY, MAY 6, 1885.

LOCAL NEWS.

Rev. J. T. Pieratt, of the Christian church, preached at Campton last Sunday.

A letter from Oeder Huff Va. and one from Redwell, Ky. arrived too late for publication this week.

Mrs. Wm. Toliver, an estimable lady, died on Saturday, in Morgan county, on Grayney creek in pregnancy.

Rev. Eugene P. Mickel was elected moderator of the West Lexington Presbytery, which met in Clark county last week.

David Morse went fishing last week and caught a fish weighing three pounds, and measuring, from the nose to the gills, four inches.

Dr. J. M. Kash was called to Campton last Sunday to see Mrs. Z. T. Hens, who was seriously ill, and last accounts she was some better.

The wife of A. H. Lacy, living on Lacy creek, near here has been quite sick, and her sister, Mrs. Fayette Scholl, was called to her bedside last Sunday.

W. O. Davis, of Hazard, passed through town last week on route home from Frankfort where he had been with business. He gave our sanctum a pleasant call and subscribed for THE HERALD.

Our friends in the blue grass may watch with lightning speed over the steel but for unalloyed pleasure, the buckboard, breezy roads and bracing air of mountain travel "beats beating." We've tried it.

J. P. Rose, living on Lacy creek, in this county, will have a big dinner for the boys to-day. He has invited them to attend a log-rolling by which he proposes to clear up about nine acres of ground.

West Lexington Presbytery, at its session last week, instructed the ministers to make Frankburg a special object in soliciting contributions, in order to raise $500 to assist in building a church at that place.

Rev. J. T. Pieratt will preach at the Dr. Nickell school house in Morgan county, on Saturday before the next session in this month at 3 o'clock p. m., Sunday at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Boys fix some seats.

See the card of Dr. R. B. Gardner in our issue to-day. The doctor is a good physician, and will doubtless prove a valuable addition to the medical profession. He is an old practitioner, but has not been before the public in that capacity for some time.

Dr. J. L. Rowland, of Salisburyville, has been in town during the past week. The doctor is always a welcome visitor in Hazel Green. He says he has visited the people of this county, in years past, to relieve their suffering, and he now proposes to visit them to relieve their pocket books.

George Boswell, who lives on Lacy creek, near town, was so unfortunate as to lose his wife on Friday last. Her death leaves him in charge of a large family of little children, and he is one of our most industrious hard working citizens, and moved to this county from Powell only a few weeks ago.

On Monday, April 13th, we will return to our old stand on Mayfield street, the Phoenix Stables, where we will again be glad to see you. Our turnouts are fine, and our stable is in the best shape than ever before. With thanks for past favors, we solicit your future patronage. B. F. ROBERTS, Supt.

Circuit court convened at West Liberty Monday, and as usual, in our mountain counties, an immense concourse of citizens were present to law and be lawed, hear the news and exchange gossip. We paid our first visit to Morgan, and were much pleased with her citizens and their capital, situated on the banks of the Licking.

A. A. Combs, a prominent merchant of Lost Creek, Breathitt county, was in Hazel Green last week and bought some stock of goods from Dr. E. F. Day. He was on his return from Frankfort where he had been to sell his timber which he had taken down in the recent fire. He says he will be here on the 13th of this month with a good lot of stock for sale.

Resolutions of Respect.

At a called meeting of Mirph Lodge, No. 507, F. & A. M., held in their hall in Hazel Green, Ky., on Thursday April 30th, 1885, to pay the last respect to Bro. A. H. Kash, who died of pneumonia on April 28th, on motion, Bro. G. B. Swango, master, appointed a committee consisting of H. C. Herndon, F. N. Day and W. O. Mize, to draft resolutions and report at the next meeting of the lodge, which was on Saturday, May 2nd, of pneumonia, the following was reported and adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased our High Grand Master, the ruler of the universe, to remove from time, our beloved brother, A. H. Kash, on Wednesday, April 28th, 1885, at 6 o'clock p. m., and summoned him from life's mortal coil to eternity's perpetual, before the Mighty of Mighty East, it is therefore Resolved: It has pleased divine providence to call our brother from labor to refreshment, we bow in humble obedience to the edict and recognize by faith the plans laid of His inscrutable ways.

Resolved: That by the death of our brother, this lodge has lost one of its members loved and respected by the fraternity, and as we drop the tear of affection in remembrance of him, we extend to his family our sympathy.

Resolved: That we who were, remembering that God guards the widow and orphan and in His care will be well comforted. That this lodge wear the noble badge of mourning thirty days, and that a copy of these resolutions be delivered to the widow of the deceased by the secretary.

Resolved: That the thanks of the lodge be tendered to our visiting brethren for their presence and assistance.

Resolved: That THE HAZEL GREEN H. C. HERNDON, F. N. DAY, W. O. MIZE, Committee.

Our Stock Sales.

From present indications it seems that our stock sales will be largely represented from all sections. Many persons have notified us that they will have stock here on that day—Wednesday, May 13th,—to sell, and a great many buyers will be here also. We can say in this connection what we have said in former issues, that it will be to the interest of both seller and buyer, and we do hope to see a large attendance of both on that day. Below we give the names of several who will be here with stock:

J. Proffitt—Twelve head of three-year-old cattle, one three-year-old mule and one horse.

John Campbell—Seven head of two-year-old cattle.

David Wilson—One yoke of four-year-old oxen.

B. C. Clemens—Lot of stock.

N. A. Whitaker—Lot of stock.

A. A. Combs—Lot of Stock.

Departed.

Mr. Howard Kash, whose illness we noted in our issue of Wednesday, passed away at 6 o'clock p. m., and was buried in the cemetery, overlooking our town, on Thursday afternoon with great honors by Mirph Lodge, No. 507, of which order he was an honorable member.

Mr. Kash was a young man in the prime of life, and leaves an interesting family of two boys and one little girl, and a wife, who is a devoted mother.

Mr. Kash was a member of the Christian church, and as a Christian, was resigned to God's will and expressed a perfect confidence that "all was well with his soul." His distressed family and friends have our warm sympathy.

Lightning's Love.

The town of Campton is evidently underlaid with metals of various kinds, or why the strong agency of lightning for that locality? Lightning struck a rod on the house of S. S. Combs last week and played up the chimney for a considerable distance, and many places were pointed out to where lightning had struck.

Mr. Taylor Day is in Cincinnati, this week buying goods.

Mrs. Nannie Herndon is visiting her sister, Mrs. Mabel, at Canton.

Rev. E. P. Mize has returned home from the meeting of the Presbytery.

Mrs. Herndon, Mrs. Hayes and Miss Lucinda Kason came to a pleasant call last week. Call again later.

George Nelson Candler honored the circuit court, at Campton, with his much esteemed presence, last week.

S. W. Landrum, a merchant of Lost Creek, Ky., was in town Monday buying a stock of goods from J. T. & F. Day.

Mr. W. M. Ragan, of West Liberty, is here attending the Sunday school convention.

Wray Beattie, of Washington, D. C., was in town a few days ago looking into the penum business.

Thos. M. Canoy, of this place, made a driving trip to Mt. Sterling last week. He did not know, but have an idea, what his business was.

R. A. Childers is making an addition to his store room, and repairing the old one which will make it a first class business house.

Died—Infant child of Isaac and Malinda Rose, on the 27th ult. The father and mother have the sympathy of the community.

CORRESPONDENCE.

EASTERN KENTUCKY NEWS BY COUNTRIES.

Reported by Special Correspondents from All Points in the Mountains.

Wayne County.

LANE.

Farmers are nearly all done planting corn.

James Williams, of Virginia, is in this vicinity with a large lot of stock, which he will drive to Mt. Sterling.

The raftsmen are returning from down the river, and report the timber market very good. This is cheering to the merchants of Wolfe and Breathitt, and the cash they are now receiving makes them look "as pleasant" as a basket of chips.

Powell County.

MERRILL.

Success to THE HERALD.

Corn is worth 70 cents per bushel.

Spring has come and the fish begin to bite.

The people have begun to plant corn in earnest.

Bush & Rice took out 15 rafts on the recent tide.

Born—To the wife of James Ira Crow, on the 21st ult., a girl.

The woods have been on fire and caused the people a great deal of trouble besides doing much damage.

The Kentucky Union Railroad Co. say they will have the road running to Clay City by the 4th of July.

George Dierbeck's house was burned on the 24th ult. This is the second house he has lost by fire this winter. It is thought to be the work of an incendiary.

Breathitt County.

JACKSON.

The Jackson high school will close its present term May 25th.

The masons are laying the foundation of the new Presbyterian church.

The school teachers of Breathitt have received their one hundred per cent.

Rev. W. B. Cooper is absent on a visit to his family, near Lexington, and attending Presbytery.

Mrs. Armina Crawford, daughter of Jason Little, of Cane creek, died at her father's residence Tuesday, April 29th.

The members of the church at Cane creek are very reluctant to part with their money, especially to pay old clerks.

Mrs. E. B. Caldwell, D. B. Redwine and R. A. Hunt attended the circuit court. Mr. Caldwell acted as assistant clerk.

Rev. James M. Little, of Gilmore, was here with us in Jackson for two weeks, staying at his brother's store. His daughter, Nannie, is attending school here.

Mr. Virgil, of Winchester, Ky., was in town several days recently looking after some land he had lately purchased.

He is remarkably preserved, and is a very interesting man.

Meers, C. J. Little and John E. Patrick, who took a large fleet of timber from Frankfort on the recent tide, have not yet (May 1st) returned. We learn they will return with their timber.

Rev. D. G. B. Demaree, presiding elder, held quarterly meeting at the mouth of Lost Creek, Saturday and Sunday, April 26th and 27th. Rev. S. H. Patrick, pastor of the church at that place, is preparing to have a church erected there this season.

The music class of the Jackson high school numbers eleven. This is a high compliment to Miss Capple Little, the music teacher, one of Breathitt's own fair daughters. She is proving herself to be a worthy successor of her brilliant teacher, Miss Rose K. Richards, of Stanford.

At the recent quarterly meeting held at Lost Creek, Samuel E. Hager, of Jackson, was licensed to hold meetings of prayer and exhortation. He is only fifteen years and six months old, but his "gifts, grace and fruits" stand him as a scholar before the church of the ministry, and as a religious worker he takes the lead. His father is a Methodist minister stationed at Louisa, Ky. He lives with his grandfather, Wm. M. Combs.

LOST CREEK.

Success to THE HERALD.

Times are hard at present, but there are fair prospects for the future. The people are laboring harder now than they have for years past.

Our log men have about all returned home. They report timber selling at a fair price.

There is still a large amount of timber in our water courses, and the prospect is that it will remain there till fall.

John Campbell has donated a site on which to erect a church-house, and the building will be completed the coming season.

A READER.

Morgan County.

MATTWYN.

Elder H. S. Helton, of Clifty, was in town last week.

One Mr. Spires, of Louisville, was in town last week on business.

Rev. W. B. Ragan, of West Liberty, is here attending the Sunday school convention.

Wray Beattie, of Washington, D. C., was in town a few days ago looking into the penum business.

Thos. M. Canoy, of this place, made a driving trip to Mt. Sterling last week. He did not know, but have an idea, what his business was.

R. A. Childers is making an addition to his store room, and repairing the old one which will make it a first class business house.

Died—Infant child of Isaac and Malinda Rose, on the 27th ult. The father and mother have the sympathy of the community.

the community.

James A. Neff, formerly of this place, but now of Spencer, Montgomery county, is in town visiting old friends and taking in the Sunday school convention and quarterly meeting.

John Wolf, of this place, has been out of the mouth of Greenhill on a fishing expedition. As usual it did not "rain out" well, in as much as the "finny tribe" would not catch on.

Rev. D. G. B. Demaree, presiding elder of the Irvine district, Kentucky conference, is in town presiding over the Sunday school convention. He is a fine presiding officer, and presides with the ease and dignity of a bishop.

DECEASED.

Campton, in this county, is a business place, and a place town in which to live. During circuit court which has just closed, we did not notice a drunken man, no brawls or commotions, and everything passed off very quietly. Although the town was filled with people from the surrounding country and from a distance, there was nothing to mar the pleasure of a pleasant visit. The people are generally so respectable, courteous, accommodating and enterprising, and when they shall have the Kentucky Union railroad passing through their town, they will give any other town in the mountains a smart spanking for being so quiet.

Spending a few days in this place, the prospect for Campton are quite flattering, and we should not be surprised to see her leading as the commercial and social center of Eastern Kentucky, when the railroad runs to that place.

Mrs. Mary A. wife of Judge Levi Kash, and mother of A. H. Kash, died, who has been an invalid for years, is spent a year in our town among her many friends who are attempting to cheer her in her gloom and hope that the change may direct her mind from her sad surroundings at home. We feel that the ladies of our town (who are proverbial for their Christian efforts in similar circumstances) will do all in their power to cheer, comfort and strengthen their aged sister in this her darkest hour of gloom.

Forming one of the banks of Swift's Camp creek, in the town of Campton, is a ledge of rock about 100 feet long, and constituting a part of four layers which is apparently bent. It stays down in the center very perceptibly indeed, and if the theory that it was caused by a volcanic eruption will hold, it was a real heat, or was it thus formed in the creation of the great universe!

Dr. R. B. Gardner, of our town, and Robert Cummins, boot and shoe manufacturer of West Liberty, have had quite a law suit pending for some years in our circuit court relative to an exchange in real estate, located in their respective towns, which was decided at this term of the court adversely to our genial young friend, the doctor, who had declined swapping. Well, well, such is fortune, and while West Liberty captures one for every body to gain an acre for the "Campan-Gardener."

Rev. Isaac Murphy, of Grayson, informs us that on his way to Hazel Green, last Saturday, he saw a lady, living on the banks of the river, who had just the crop of a duck. He stated that the duck had been fed a handful of corn, and the bird, in its greediness, had taken it so fast as the duck took it in the bill, and he examined and discovered what he feared, by some student, bent split, hence the trouble. He thinks the duck was under the influence of chloroform at that time.

During our visit to Campton last week we noticed that Combs & Vaughn's place of business was pretty well filled with buyers all the time. This is a significant fact. They advertise in THE HERALD, and as nearly all the good people in the county take the paper, they see that advertisement and know just where to go to buy bargains. "A word to the wise is sufficient," and if merchants would increase their trade, they should try the same experiment.

The saw-mill of Hanks & Tutt, of this county, is now doing a big business. They are under contract to saw 200,000 feet of lumber for George I. Centers, our sheriff. They will wind up about to-day, and they will then remove to Greenberry, Little's, on Stillwater, where they have a contract for sawing 100,000 feet. This is an enterprising firm, and their sawyer, Wm. A. Jones, is one of the best in Eastern Kentucky.

Messrs. B. C. Clemens and A. N. Whitaker, of that place, passed through our town last Saturday en route home from Frankfort, where they had been to sell their logs. They were there purchased from J. T. & F. Day quite a large quantity of goods, and informed a Herald scribbler that on the 13th inst., our sale day, they will each have a lot of stock on the market.

Young Men—Read This.

The Voltaic Belt Company, of Marshall, Mich., offer to send their celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belt and other electric appliances on trial for thirty days to men (young or old) afflicted with nervous debility and all kindred troubles. Also for rheumatism, neuralgia, paralysis and other diseases. Complete restoration to health and vigor guaranteed. No charge is made, as thirty days trial is allowed. Write them at once for illustrated pamphlet free.

A CARD OF THANKS.

Editor of THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD: I wish to acknowledge, through the columns of your paper, to express my sincere thanks to the good people of Hazel Green and surrounding communities, who have been so kind and attentive to my needs, and in return, during my illness, with my heart-felt thanks and asking God's blessing upon them all.

I am respectfully,

Insurance, in order to be reliable, must be guaranteed by successful and well-known corporations; the policies of doubtful or experimental companies being dear at any price.
The best policies are always the cheapest. Insurers should select their companies as they would a banker; or a person who is to hold their funds in trust. Look to quality of the insurance consideration of Insurance. Especially,
